

The reason why i was placed in the "Danger Without Intentions" course starts with my horrible decision making. I previously spent the night at the house where I received the minor in consumption charge which belong to my friend Chase Riley's" parents. The party began around 8:30pm with 5 or 6 people attending at first, but quickly escalated shortly after. Within 1 hour 5 people grew into 20 and more and more kept coming. Around 10:30 everyone went out to the back porch and some heavily intoxicated people jumped into the pool and started screaming. I wasn't currently aware of that because I was so drunk from the 6 shots that I'd taken earlier that night. I became aware of the noise when my friend Zach came into Chase's room where I was passed out at and woke me up and told me to come outside because there's a naked girl jumping into the pool. Thats what lead to the cops getting called. When the police arrived I was shell shocked for the first time I felt as if I couldn't breath and the idea of me losing my partial scholarship for school and maybe missing out on good jobs because this was going on my record sickened me. I was extremely shocked when "Judge Glenn Bass" stated that if I complete this program and stayed out of trouble for the next 6 months the "minor in consumption" wouldn't go on my record. During the first class I wasn't taking any of the information seriously, but by the end of the second class i had a change of heart. I guess you could say the speakers were starting to rub off on me and I'm glad I know now that you may not go looking for trouble but trouble can easily find you. I'm also aware now why teenager's or young adults are consisted high risks it's not because we are not compatible of driving properly, but it is because of our lack of experience that allows us to place ourselves in deadly situations. In conclusion I would like to thank all the speakers that took the time out of their busy schedules to attempt to get through to young and reckless adults like myself. I want to say you got through to me and I'll always remember you.
